

Colin Fewer: 2005
Colin Fewer: 2006
Colin Fewer: 2007
Colin Fewer: 2008
Colin Fewer: 2009
Colin Fewer: 2010
Colin Fewer: 2011
Matt Loiselle: 2012
Daniel McNeil: 2013
Colin Fewer: 2014
Matt Loiselle: 2015
Colin Fewer: 2016
Colin Fewer: 2017
Colin Fewer: 2018
Colin Fewer: 2019

Dean Alyward: 2005
Paul McCloy: 2006
Dean Alyward: 2007
Adam Stacey: 2008
Graydon Snider: 2009
Grant Handrigan: 2010
Graydon Snider: 2011
Colin Fewer: 2012
John Angelopoulos: 2013
Daniel McNeil: 2014
Graydon Snider: 2015
Graydon Snider: 2016
Matt Loiselle: 2017
Graydon Snider: 2018
Graydon Snider: 2019

Peter Power: 2005
Jay MacDonald: 2006
Brian Torrance: 2007
Graydon Snider: 2008
Trevor O'Brien: 2009
Steve Boyd: 2010
Grant Handrigan: 2011
Graydon Snider: 2012
Brent Addison: 2013
Lee McCarron: 2014
Ryan Brockerville: 2015
Ryan Brockerville: 2016
David Freake: 2017
Chris Galley: 2018
Matt Noseworthy: 2019

Most Successful Participants

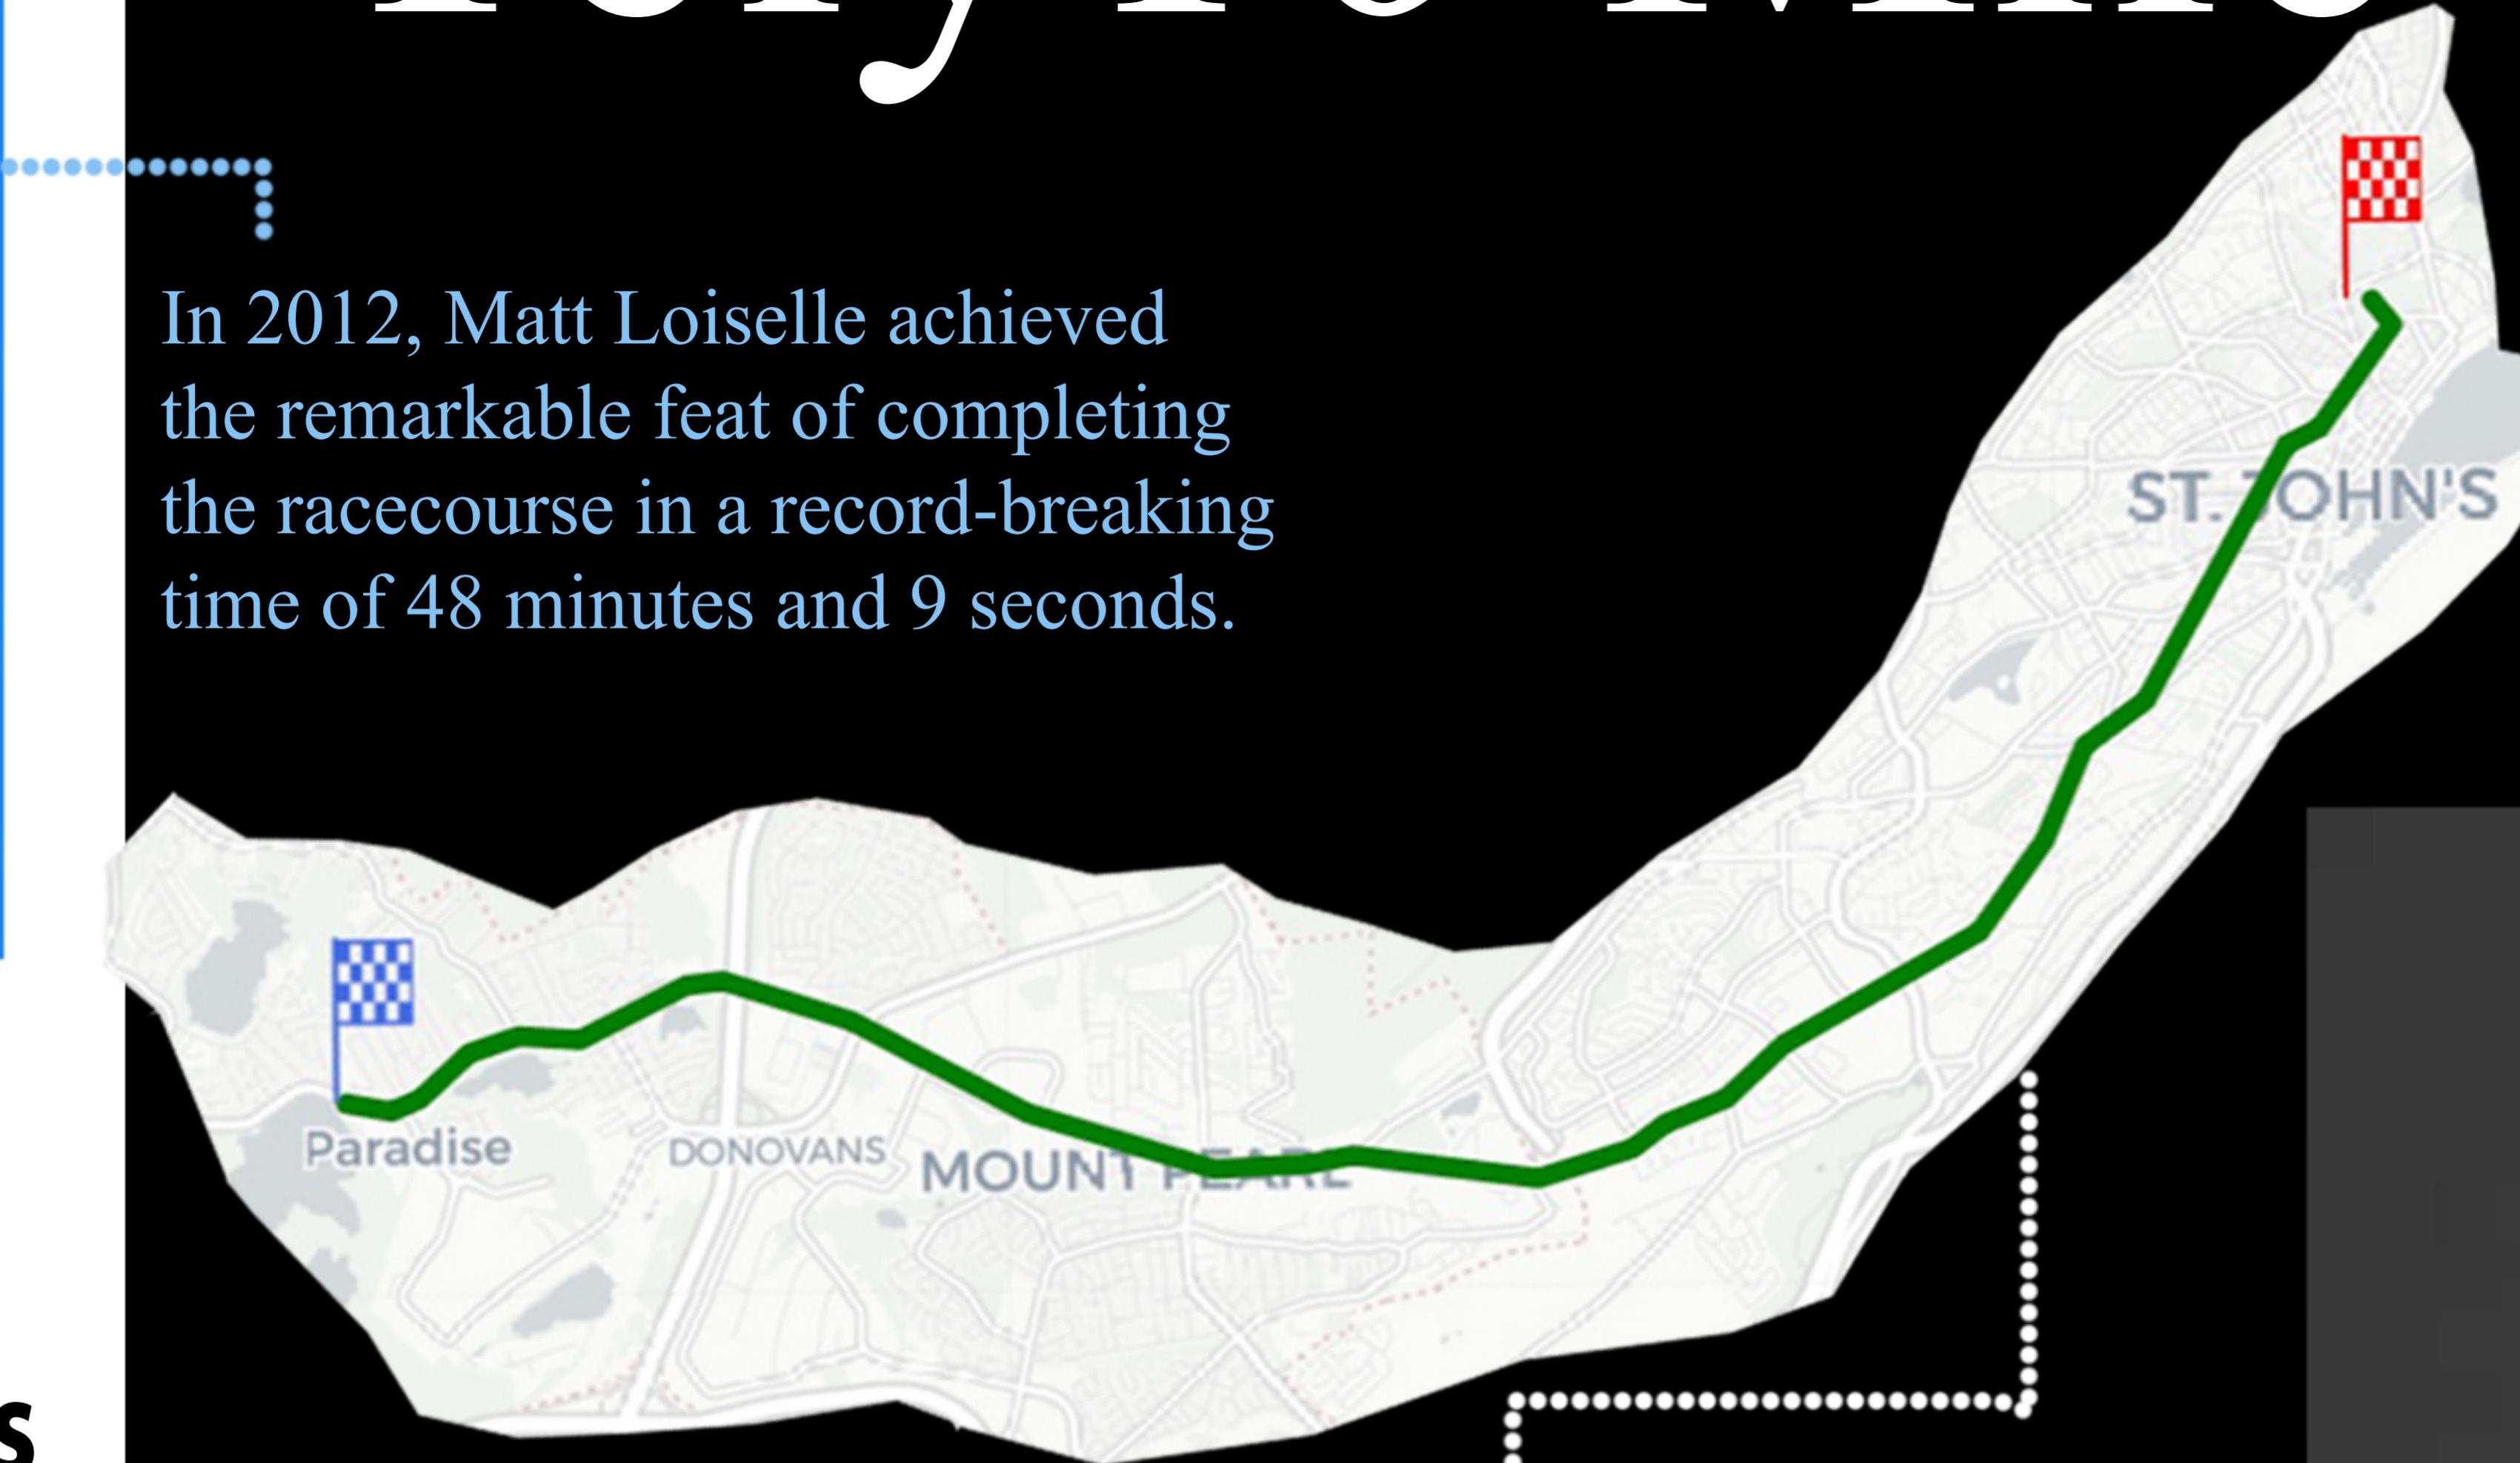

Male

Female

Tely10 Mile Road Race

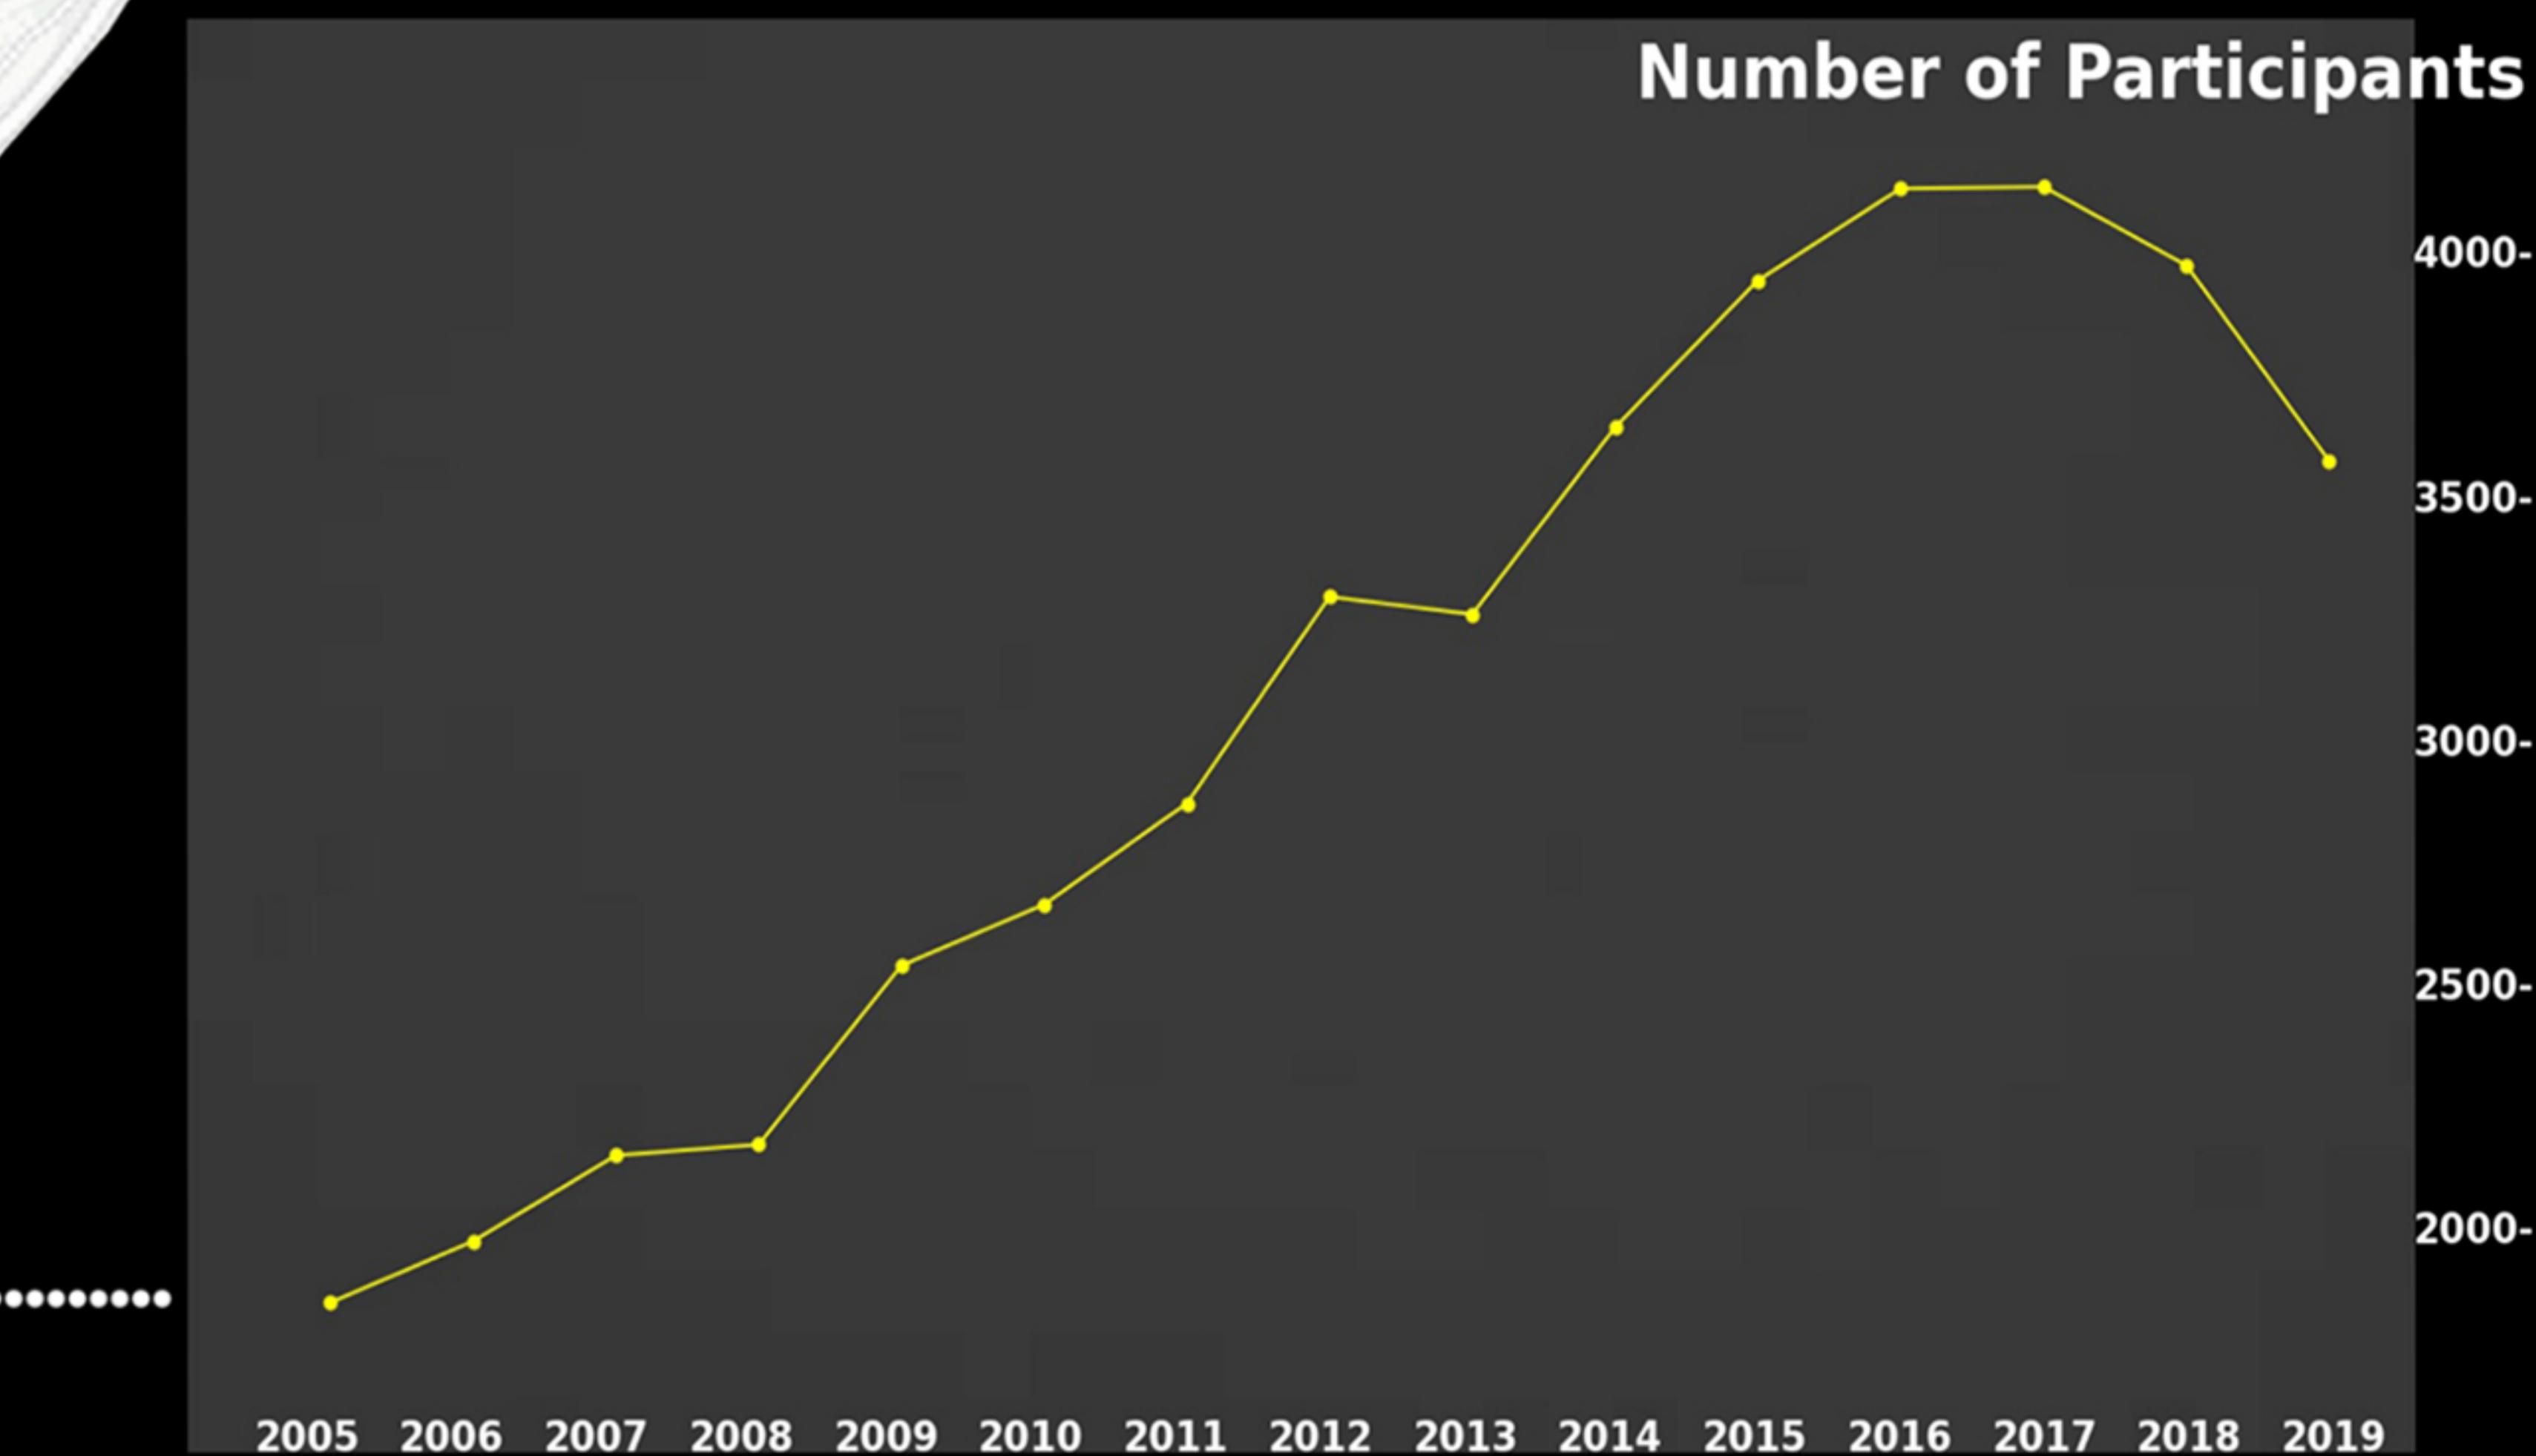

In 2012, Matt Loiselle achieved the remarkable feat of completing the racecourse in a record-breaking time of 48 minutes and 9 seconds.

The Tely10 Mile Road Race starts commences on Topsail Rd. near Tilting Pl. by Octagon Pond in the Town of Paradise.

The rout they follow is: Topsail Rd – Cornwall Ave – LeMarchant Rd – Harvey Rd – Military Rd – Left into Bannerman Rd. The race concludes just past the Bannerman Park Swimming Pool.

In 2019, Anne Johnston achieved the record-breaking time of 54 minutes and 25 seconds in female category.

How successful was the Tely10 Road Race from 2005-2019?

Since 2005, the Tely10 Road Race has consistently gained popularity, attracting a larger number of participants each year. Notably, this growth extended not only in terms of total participants but also in the geographical diversity of those taking part. The pinnacle of this surge occurred in 2017, when a remarkable 4,354 individuals joined the race. These participants hailed from a staggering 347 different cities and towns across various regions. The Tely10 Road Race has truly become a celebrated event that unites runners from diverse backgrounds, making it a testament to the spirit of athleticism and community engagement.